THINGS TO BRING

- Bring clothes for appropriate season. Corvallis weather is warm around this time, but the coast can be cooler (we will travel to the coast halfway in the week)
- Good walking shoes or boots, depending on the weather, and gym clothes for recreation times.
- Guitar or any musical instruments you play
- Leisure reading material, if desired
- Any prescription medicine you may need. Medications must be in original bottles/container with labels and instructions. An Institute staff will administer this medication
- Personal hygiene supplies such as shampoo, soap, toothpaste, toothbrush, deodorant, etc.
- Bathrobe, pajamas, slippers, swim suit, extra bath towels, if desired (one towel will be provided)
- Don't bring valuables
- ... And a great attitude!

WHAT WE WILL PROVIDE

- Meals in the University's dining room (except lunch on the road, which is your responsibility)
- Lodging at University, including pillow, linens, and (1) towel.
- Group activities, recreation, dance
- Conference materials and speakers/staff
- An excellent place to learn and grow; a positive learning environment with role models, recreation, and small group time, and a conference dance.

OUR RULES (SIMPLE BUT NECESSARY)

- Stay with or report to assigned facilitator or chaperone/mentor
- No DRUGS, ALCOHOL, SMOKING, or GANG ATTIRE
- ABSOLUTELY NO off-campus or non-conference visitors or activities
- No Institute participant of opposite gender in your dorm room
- Adhere to Institute rules and agenda, attend to ALL sessions
- Cell phones and mp3 players' use is VERY limited and may only be used during assigned times.

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY RULES (WE ARE THEIR GUESTS. WE MUST FOLLOW THEIR RULES)

- Dorm rooms must be kept clean. Vandalism is not tolerated
- Lock your doors. Protect your property
- No firearms, firecrackers or explosives
- No cooking in rooms
- No hanging out the windows or abuse of dorm lounge telephone/TV usage

If any rules are violated, your parents will be notified, and/or privileges during recreation/free time may be lost or you may be asked to leave at your own expense!
